Cottages in Birds End Hargrave (1925)

These cottages stood on 4 acres of ground called Birds End on the Hargrave to Saxham Road.

They had been purchased by Mr E Farrow from Mr Bromley of Wickhambrook, to be pulled down. (Aug 22nd 1925)

There were now three different blocks but tradition says there were once eight cottages.

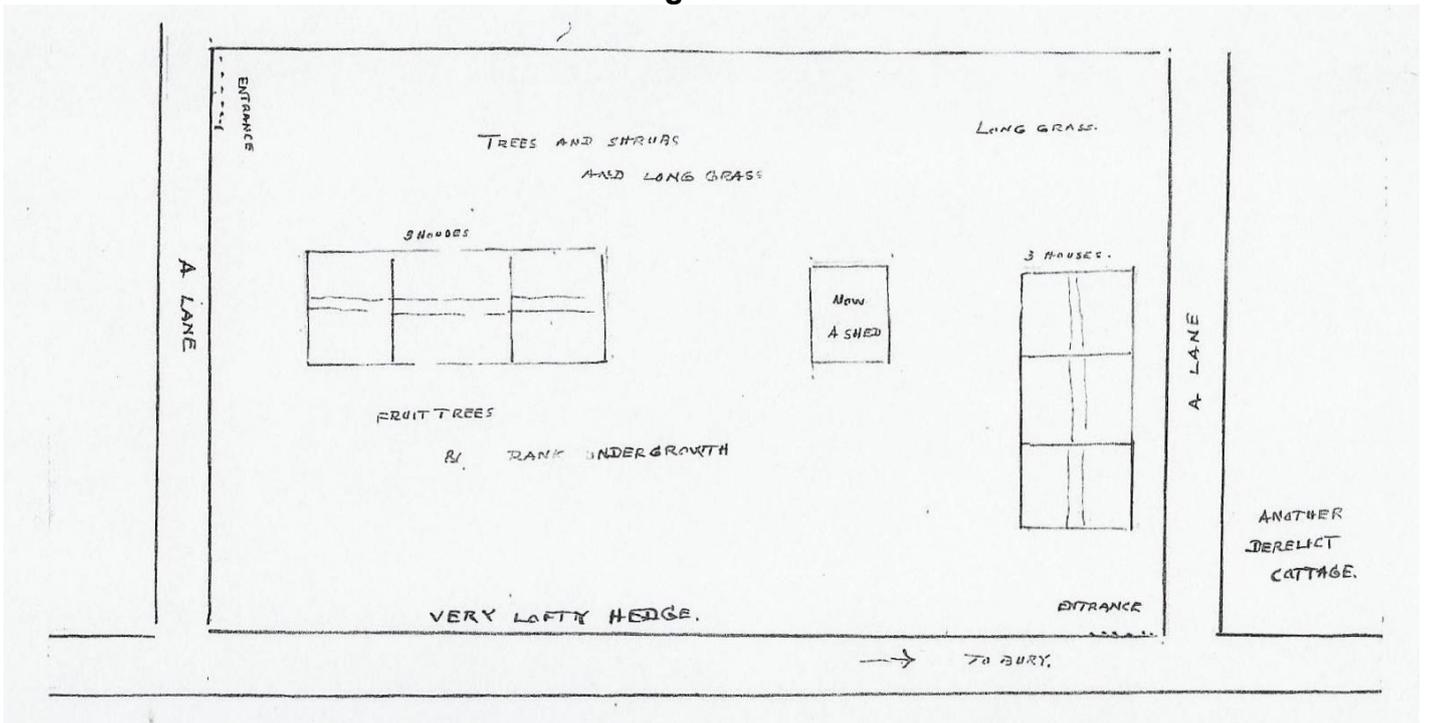

The ground around was now smothered with undergrowth of years and the last time occupied was about ten years ago.

Note: Mr Warren Bromley got these cottages by foreclosing a mortgage.

They were then the property of Mr Ray and would have been inherited by Mr Pask of Hargrave.

Today the site is occupied by two newer houses, Springfield House and Trevague.
