NOTICE.

- The Head, or person acting as Head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this Form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons having part of the household for Census purposes, but the heading to Column (a) will be.
- If the one or more persons responsible for making separate lodgings to a house or a separate part of a house will be required to forward a separate household. The heading to be inserted as part of the household with which they head.
- The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or common or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this Form with respect to all persons falling to be included as tenants of the establishment for Census purposes, but the heading to Column (a) will be.
- Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No one may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
- A person who has applied to the permitted occupier to make a separate residential return will not be liable to give information to the Head or Manager, and to each one of the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to do so in the event of his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Column (a) will be filled in.
- The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.
- The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the Schedule to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the Schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
- If any person omits duty it is to make a return or to give information when required, or willfully gives false information, or uses otherwise false for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

B. P. VEVIAN,
Registrar-General.

Name of person responsible for making the return.	Alfred Sargent
Postal Address.	The Green, Harpenden, Busby St. Edmunds

NOTICE.

- The Head, or person acting as Head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this Form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
- Any one or more persons separately occupying separate lodgings in a house or a separate part of a house will be regarded as forming a separate household. But lodgings are to be regarded as part of the household with which they form.
- The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or common or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this Form with respect to all persons falling to be included as inmates of the establishment for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
- Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No one may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
- A person who has applied to the person named in the Head or Manager, and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required to Columns (a) and (b) within.
- The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.
- The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the Schedule in the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. However, the Schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
- If any person refuses that it is to make a return or to give information relative to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

S. P. VIVIAN,
Registrar General.

Postal Address	10, St. Edmund's

NOTICE.

- The head of a household acting as head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
- If any one or more persons occupying separate lodgings in a house or a separate part of a house will be reported as forming a separate household, and returns are to be reported as part of the household from which they head.
- The Master or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or institution or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this form with respect to all persons falling to be included as inmates of the establishments for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
- Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to make the return to be made. In no way, however, to make of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
- A person who has applied to the Registrar General to make a separate matrimonial return will not be liable to give information in the head or Master; and he shall not be liable to give information in the return required in Column (a) within.
- The returns will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns only on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the schedule.
- The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the schedule to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
- If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

INSTRUCTIONS

For filling up Columns (b), (h), (k) and (l).

- Column (b)—RELATIONSHIP.—Any status passed to the dwelling on Census night who usually lives elsewhere should, for Census purposes, be described in Column (b) as "Visitor," and not as "Guest," "Interim," etc.
 - Column (c)—EDUCATION.—For persons attending a school or other institution for the purpose of receiving education, write "What Time" if attending daily during the full day school hours or otherwise in an extent which leaves no material time for employment. "Part Time" if attending Day Classes, Schools or Evening Classes, or otherwise giving such part of an afternoon or evening as prevents or hinders full-time employment.
 - Column (h) and (i)—OCCUPATION AND EMPLOYMENT.—For a person already entered as "What Time" in Column (c), so enter in Column (h), unless the person is waiting for a particular profession or occupation (see Instructions 4). For column under (i), Column (h) (3) and (4) should be left blank.
- PERSONS NOT PRINCIPALLY OCCUPIED IN WORKING FOR PAYMENT ON PROFIT.
- If studying or preparing for any particular profession or occupation, write accordingly in Column (h) "What Time Student," "Improving Student," "Law Student," "Medical Student," etc., and leave Column (i) blank. (Do not appropriate as persons awaiting an order from a school or hospital as usually following the occupations to which they are appointed.)
 - For a member of a private household (not a household's wife who is usually occupied in unpaid domestic duties at home, write "House Duties" in Column (h) and leave Column (i) and (j) blank.
 - If not doing any regular or casual, and not following any other regular occupation, trade, business, occupation or service in Column (h), entering "Unpaid" in Column (i) should be filled up, business of house employer (if any) being stated.
 - For a member of the household who is chiefly occupied in giving unpaid help in a business carried on by the head of the household or other relative, enter the occupation in Column (h) as though it were a paid occupation. The name of the head of the business should be entered in Column (i) as employer, together with the nature of the business.
 - For other persons not included above who are usually dependent upon others' services, write "None" or "Not known" in Column (i) and leave Column (j) blank.

- PERSONS PRINCIPALLY OCCUPIED IN WORKING FOR PAYMENT ON PROFIT.
- The occupation should be stated in Column (h), whether the worker is at work or not at the time of the Census. If more than one paid occupation is followed, enter only that by which the living is mainly earned.
 - The precise character of the occupation should be stated. Vague and indefinite terms must not be used, such, for example, as Assistant, Collector, Clerical, Factory Hand, Foreman, Inspector, Interpreter, Messenger, Manufacturer, Officer, Operative, Overseer, Traveller, etc.
 - Persons not included above should state the occupation in Column (h) as follows:
 - 1. Merchant, Retail Dealer or Shop Proprietor.—Retail Grocer, Provision, Draper, Baker, etc.
 - 2. Wholesale Dealer or Commission Agent.—Wholesale Grocer, Provision, Draper, Baker, etc.

NOTICE.

- The head, or person acting as head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this Form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons having part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (A) within.
- If a head or some person expressly accepting special liability for a head or a special part of a house will be expected as forming a separate household, but his name is to be regarded as part of the household with which they live.
- The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or messuage or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this Form with respect to all persons liable to be included as inmates of the establishment for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (A) within.
- Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No one may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
- A person who has applied in the prescribed manner to make a separate civilizational return will not be liable to give information to the head or Manager, and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Column (A) and (B) within.
- The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.
- A person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the Schedule, or the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. However, the Schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
- If any person when duly called to make a return or to give information refuses to do so or wilfully gives false information, or omits essential facts for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

E. P. VIVIAN,
Registrar-General.

(Head of Household, Manager of Establishment or other person responsible for making the returns.)

CENSUS, ENGLAND, 1921.

SCHEDULE.

Prescribed by Regulations under the Census Act, 1920, as the form to be used in England (excluding Manxland), for the purpose of return in respect of the Private Household, the House, Club, Boarding House, or Common or other Living House, and of Other persons in respect of whom no other form of return is provided.

This space to be filled up by the Enumerator.

Registration District	Registration Sub-District	Enumeration District

Name of person responsible for making the return	Joseph Neeson
Postal Address	Horsgrave 177 Edmund

NOTICE.

1. The Head of person living as Head of a Private Household is required by law to make a return in this form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (a) of Form.

2. The Manager or other person responsible for making separate lodgings in a house or in separate part of a house will be required to furnish a separate household. But lodgings are to be reported as part of the household when taken by the head.

3. The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or common or other living house, is required by law to make a return in this form with respect to all persons living in or on the premises of the establishment for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (a) of Form.

4. Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No one may, however, be made of such information by the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.

5. A person who has applied to the prescribed authority to make a separate establishment return will not be liable to give information as the Head of Manager, and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to make it in respect of that person the particulars required in Column (a) and (b) of Form.

6. The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.

7. The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the Schedule by the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If found, the Schedule may be handed to the enumerator either direct.

8. If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so, or wilfully gives false information, or does otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given lawfully for that purpose, he will be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

H. P. VIGAN,

Registrar-General.

NOTICE.

- The Head or person acting as Head, of a private household is required by law to make a return in this Form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (a) below.
- N.B.—Any one or more persons voluntarily accepting temporary lodgings in a house or a separate part of a house will be regarded as forming a separate household. But lodgings are to be regarded as part of the household with which they stand.
- The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or guest-house or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this Form with respect to all persons falling to be included as tenants of the establishment for Census purposes. See the heading in Column (a) below.
- Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. In no way, however, he need give such information to the person to whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
- A person who has applied to the prescribed authority to make a separate, consolidated return will not be liable to give information to the Head or Manager; and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Column (a) and (b) below.
- The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 26th, by the appointed enumerator, in order that he may not be delayed in next day's work with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or incorrect, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.
- The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to follow the Schedule in the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the Schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
- If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so, or willfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Ten Pounds.

E. P. VIVIAN,
Registrar-General.

INSTRUCTIONS

For filling up Columns (b), (h), (k) and (l).

- Column (b)—RELATIONSHIP.—Any relative present in the dwelling on Census night who usually lives elsewhere should, for Census purposes, be classified as follows: (a) "Father," and not as "Son," "Daughter," "Grandfather," etc.
 - Column (h)—EDUCATION.—For persons attending a school or other institution for the purpose of receiving education, write "While Time" if attending daily during the last day of reference to an extent which leaves no time for employment. "Part Time" if attending during the day, but leaving time for employment. In cases of persons giving such particular information as to persons or single persons of occasional or casual employment.
 - Column (k) and (l)—OCCUPATION AND EMPLOYMENT.—For a person actually engaged as "While Time" in Column (k), no entry is needed in Column (l), unless the person is engaged for a particular profession or occupation (see Instruction 6). For children under 15 (Column (k) (i) and (l) should be left blank).
- PERSONS NOT PRINCIPALLY OCCUPIED IN WORKING FOR PAYMENT OR PROFIT.
- If residing on property for any particular profession or occupation, write accordingly in Column (k) "Widow (Student)," "Housewife (Student)," "Law Student," "Medical Student," etc., and leave Column (l) blank. (First occupation or profession training or similar basis should be entered, as actually following the occupation to which they are appointed.)
 - In the case of a person licensed (such as a housewife's work) who is actually engaged to receive domestic duties in form, write "Home Duties" in Column (k) and leave Column (l) and (l) blank.
 - If engaged from an occupation or service, but not following any other occupation, write "General occupation of service" in Column (k), adding "Domestic" in Column (l) should be filled up, because of house-employment (if any) being stated.
 - In the case of a person who is unemployed in giving special help in a business enterprise by the kind of the household or other relative, state the occupation in Column (k) so far as it seems a good occupation. The value of the kind of the business should be stated in Column (l) or employer, together with the nature of the business, for a filling. In Column (k) and leave Column (l) blank.

PERSONS PRINCIPALLY OCCUPIED IN WORKING FOR PAYMENT OR PROFIT.

- The occupation should be stated in Column (k), whether the return is in respect of an individual or of the head of the household. It must then also appear in Column (l), with that by which the return is usually earned.
- The precise character of the occupation should be stated. Words and Infinitive Terms must not be used, such, for example, as "Assistant, Collector, Contractor, Factory Hand, Foreman, Inspector, Messenger, Bookkeeper, Manufacturer, Workman, Operative, Overlooker, etc." Plural and Participle forms are to be avoided. In cases of doubt as to what form to use, see the following examples:
 - 1. Occupations, Trade Names or Firm Names.—Police Constable, Shipyard Hand, Bookbinder, etc. (Do not use "Police Constable," "Shipyard Hand," "Bookbinder," etc.)
 - 2. For the work of a child engaged in working in a factory, write "Child" and the name of the factory. (Do not use "Child," "Factory Hand," "Child Worker," etc.)

Charles Walter Green Field
(Head of Household, Manager of Establishment or other person responsible for making the return.)

E CENSUS, ENGLAND, 1921.

SCHEDULE.

Prescribed by Regulations under the Census Act, 1919, for the form to be used in England (including Manxshire), for the purpose of returns in respect of (a) Private Households, (b) Farms, Clubs, Boarding Houses, or Cottages or other Lodging Houses, and (c) Other persons in respect of whom no other form of schedule is provided.

This space to be filled up by the Enumerator.

Registration District 207	Parliamentary Sub-District 4	Enumeration District 5
Name of person responsible for making returns Mr. Edward Frost
Postal Address Worgrave Farm, Bourne, St. Edmunds

NOTICE.

1. The Head of person acting as Head of a private household is required by law to make a return in this Form, stating the particulars asked for in respect of all persons forming part of the household for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
2. If a day or more persons separately occupying adjacent holdings in a house or a separate part of a house will be regarded as forming a separate household. But lodgers are to be regarded as part of the household with which they board.
3. The Manager or other person in charge of a hotel, club, boarding house, or cottage or other lodging house, is required by law to make a return in this Form with respect to all persons falling to be included as tenants of the establishment for Census purposes. See the heading to Column (a) within.
4. Every such person is required by law to give to the person responsible for making the return such information as may be necessary to enable the return to be made. No one may, however, be made of such information by the person in whom it is given except for the purpose of making the return.
5. A person who has applied to the postmaster's office to make a separate numbered return will not be liable to give information to the Head or Manager, and in such case the person responsible for making the return will only be liable to include in his return in respect of that person the particulars required in Column (a) and (b) within.
6. The Schedule will be called for on Monday, April 25th, by the appointed enumerator; in order that he may not be delayed it must be ready with the answers written in the proper columns early on the morning of that day. If the answers are incomplete or inaccurate, the enumerator must ask any questions necessary to enable him to correct the Schedule.
7. The person responsible for making the return may, if unable to deliver the schedule to the enumerator personally, arrange for some other person to do so on his behalf. If desired, the schedule may be handed to the enumerator under cover.
8. If any person whose duty it is to make a return or to give information refuses to do so or willfully gives false information, or uses otherwise than for the purpose of making the return any information given him for that purpose, he will be liable to a fine not exceeding Two Pounds.

NOTE.—In cases where the enumeration district extends into more than one local sub-division, the boundary and contents of each such part of the enumeration district must be described on a separate page, and only the names of the local sub-divisions constituting the particular part of the enumeration district described on each page are to be given under the headings 1 to 8. In all such cases the words "part of" must be inserted after the number of the enumeration district, and the estimate of the number of families, i.e., separate occupiers, must refer only to the part described on the same page. The mileage, however, must be stated for the entire Enumeration District, and should be given only on the first page containing the description of part of the district.
